Overcome by Fumes of Ammonia

So. Pittsburg, Aug. 1.—A. R. Williamson and two assistants were overcome by ammonia fumes when a pipe in their ice cream making department burst, filling the air with its stifling fumes. Repairs were made but the odor of the ammonia still clung to the building Sunday and persons entering the drug store mistook it for a disinfectant and wondered if a contagious disease had broken out in the city.

UNCLE TOM'S LETTER

People are so busy making money they haven't any time to give to the Lord. Everybody is out for a good time and they sure are having it. Never before in all my life of 74 years do I remember of people enjoying so many good things as they do now and the church folks and all can't stop long enough to thank God for the wonderful blessings He is pouring out on them. Everybody has money and the women are having the time of their life, riding up and down the railroads and in autos. Its glorious.

Well, I hope the people will get reconciled and get used to paying the price. Better as it is than to go back to the low prices and homespun clothes.

Well, I am in a position to find out a few things and I mean by that prohibition is a success, and law enforcement is being accomplished with but very little trouble. Grundy county is soberer than ever before. A big change has come about and we were a dry county to what we were once. Uncle Sam is boss and his force is wide awake and knows pretty well who buys the most sugar, syrups and meal and who sells it, so in a little while he'll know all about those who defy him. It takes about three years for wild catting and bootlegging to run out of date. Wonder if the Democratic party of Marion, Franklin, Warren and Grundy counties will nominate a booze guzzler for the state senate and expect upright and sober people to vote for him. If it does I warn the party they won't do it. I understand, though, John Myers, of Sewanee, will accept the honor. John is a sober, christian gentleman and a man who will be an honor to the people all right. John, come along and let us elect you. Jeff D. Fuels, of Tracy City, would accept the nomination. He is a sober gentleman and a member of the Baptist church and don't drink. We have plenty of material that is clean on the mountain, and if the party don't use it, she will have the fight of her life to elect a booze guzzler. Lots of talk about wildcat stills, but not all the talk is founded on fact. My advice to all wildcaters is to quit and quit now. Uncle Sam is certainly going to get you if you don't and the people are not going to allow you to violate the law much longer. Take an old man's advice and quit.

TWO BROTHERS DROWN TOGETHER

Joe Lee and Lawton Lee, 19 and 14 Years, Victims of Tennessee River Tragedy

Swimming Wednesday afternoon in the Tennessee river with a party of companions, Joe and Lawton Lee, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, of this city, and aged 19 and 14 years respectively, were drowned when the elder brother went to the rescue of the younger, who was beyond his depth, and in distress. The elder boy's bride of two weeks witnessed the death of her young husband; she is prostrated as a result of the tragedy.

Following the tragedy, searching parties made up of relatives and friends of the dead boys spent Wednesday night dragging the muddy depths of the Tennessee, and success rewarded their efforts in the early hours of Thursday morning; the body of elder brother was found first, about fifty feet from where it went down, and a few minutes later the body of Lawton was discovered; both were taken to the undertaking parlors of C. Baumgartner, of this city, where they were prepared for burial.

The tragic accident which plunges this family into grief and has saddened the entire community, happened at about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It appears that the young victims with a number of companions, numbering about a dozen, had gone to the river for a swimming party; they selected section of the west bank of the river lying approximately opposite the upper end of Long Island the water at this point said to be very rapid. According to the statements of eye-witnesses, Lawton, who was learning to swim was in the some distance from the remainder of the party, being about fifty feet from the bank, and about fifty below the principal group of swimmers; it is surmised that he was seized with cramps, and witnesses state that he had gone under twice when the elder brother, who was an excellent swimmer, perceived his distress and hastened to his aid; the frightened young brother yielded to a mistake only too common under such circumstances, clasping his rescuer about neck in such a fashion as to impede his swimming; this hold was so firm as to be relaxed only by death, and the two brothers sank in each other's arms.

Joe Lee was married about two weeks ago to Miss Maggie Templeton, a pretty and popular employee for some time of the Aycock Hosiery Mills, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to the young widow. Her husband, at that time of his death, had just finished his time as an apprentice in the moulding shop of the stove works.

Surviving the dead youths are their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, two brothers Clarence and Leslie, and two sisters, Mrs. Lee Ridley of Doran's cove, and Miss Ina, of this city. The latter was in Chicago on a visit at the time of the tragedy and was notified immediately by telegraph of the fate of her brothers.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at the Patton cemetery, a great concourse of friends and sympathizers attending.—South Pittsburg Hustler.
